

NEWS » » fashion

A big month for fashion sees the 2006 L'Oreal Melbourne Fashion Festival kick off in style on February 26. This seven-day event showcases the Autumn/Winter collections of Australia's leading designers from Mad Cortes, Jayson Brunsdon to Arabella Ramsay, Nicola Finetti and Easton Pearson. Find out more at www.lmff.com.au. On the local fashion front, young QUT graduate Shilo Engelbrecht took out the title of Mercedes-Benz Start Up winner. Shilo's talented designs will appear in the New Generation show at Mercedes Australian Fashion Week Spring Summer in Sydney, currently scheduled for April 26 to 30. Check for updates on www.mafw.com.au.